"It is in fact a part of the function of education to help us escape - not from our own time, for we are bound by that - but from the intellectual and emotional limitations of our time." T.S. Eliot

"If you live in a state where you attain your legal majority while still in you teens, pretend that you don't. There isn't an adult alive who would want to be contractually bound by a decision he came to at the age of 19."

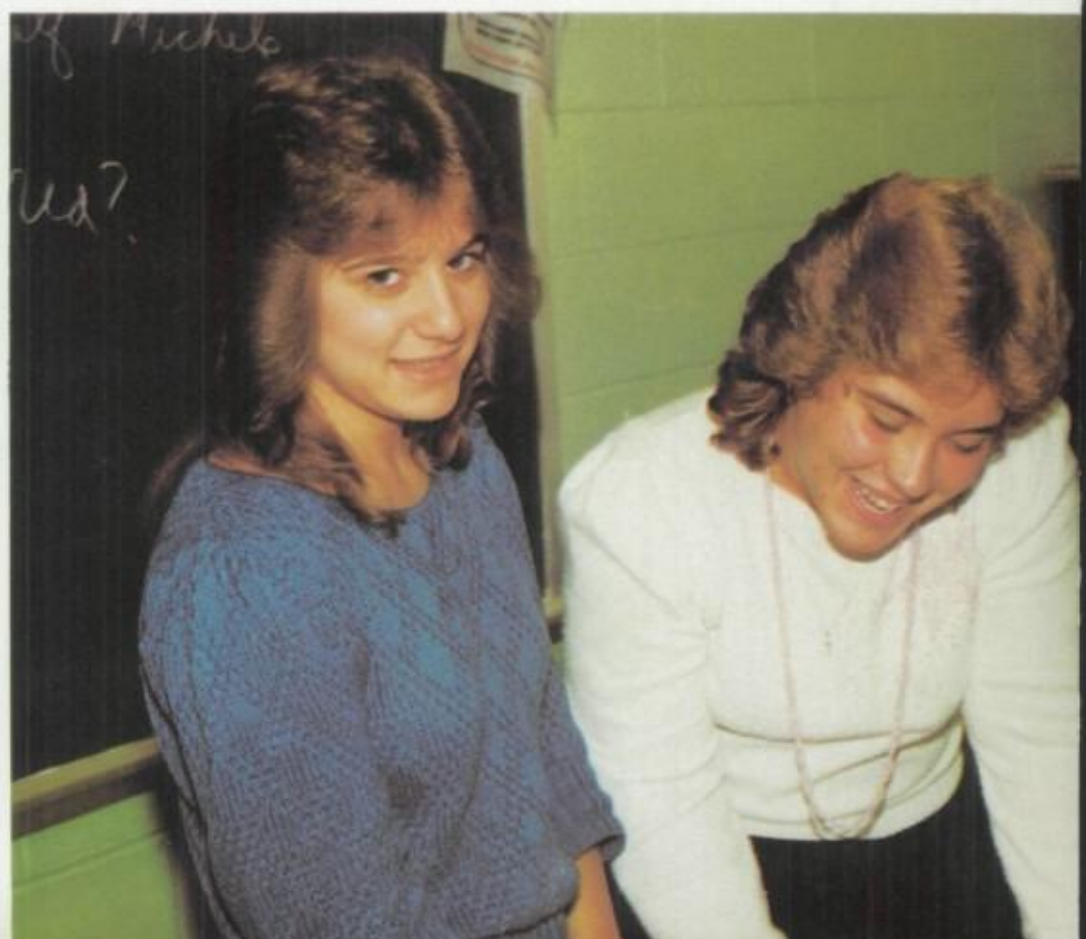

F. Lebowitz

"All these tidal gatherings, growth, and decay, shining and darkening, are forever renewed; and the whole cycle impenitently revolves, and all the past is future."

Robinson Jeffers

Dedication

The graduating class of 1985 would like to give a special thank you to our class advisor, Mrs. Bridie Brown. Through the past four years she has guided us and has given us much encouragement as we have grown to be mature young adults. She has been a good friend to each and every member of the class. Her hard work, good humor and warm smile will always be remembered and appreciated.

Appreciation

1985 brings to an end the remarkable teaching career of Mrs. Betty Marruscello. She has been an English teacher in Marlboro for more than thirty years. We, the current Marlboro students as well as many of our parents, can recall Mrs. Marruscello's great commitment as an education leader in our town. Her lively classes, class trips and the many activities she has organized are only part of her contribution to Marlboro; her dedication, enthusiasm, humor and kindness have touched us all. We wish her a full, enjoyable and rewarding retirement. She will be dearly missed.

Activities

"Now That's School Spirit!"

"My Pledge To America"

Mr. Igo's senior English classes had the opportunity to participate in the annual V.F.W. essay contest. Nine finalists were chosen and presented their speeches in the auditorium. Finalists were: Ron Morehead, Patty Wilson, James Fantini, Fran Scoppa, Chris Pugliese, Mary Jo Hennekens, Yebrail Brennan, Mickey Mazzeo, and Tom Nead. Yebrail Brennan took first place in the school level competition and then had the chance to win in the regional finals. Fran Scoppa earned second place in the school competition.

As Editor of the 1985 TORCH, I would like to give my deepest appreciation and thanks to the following people:

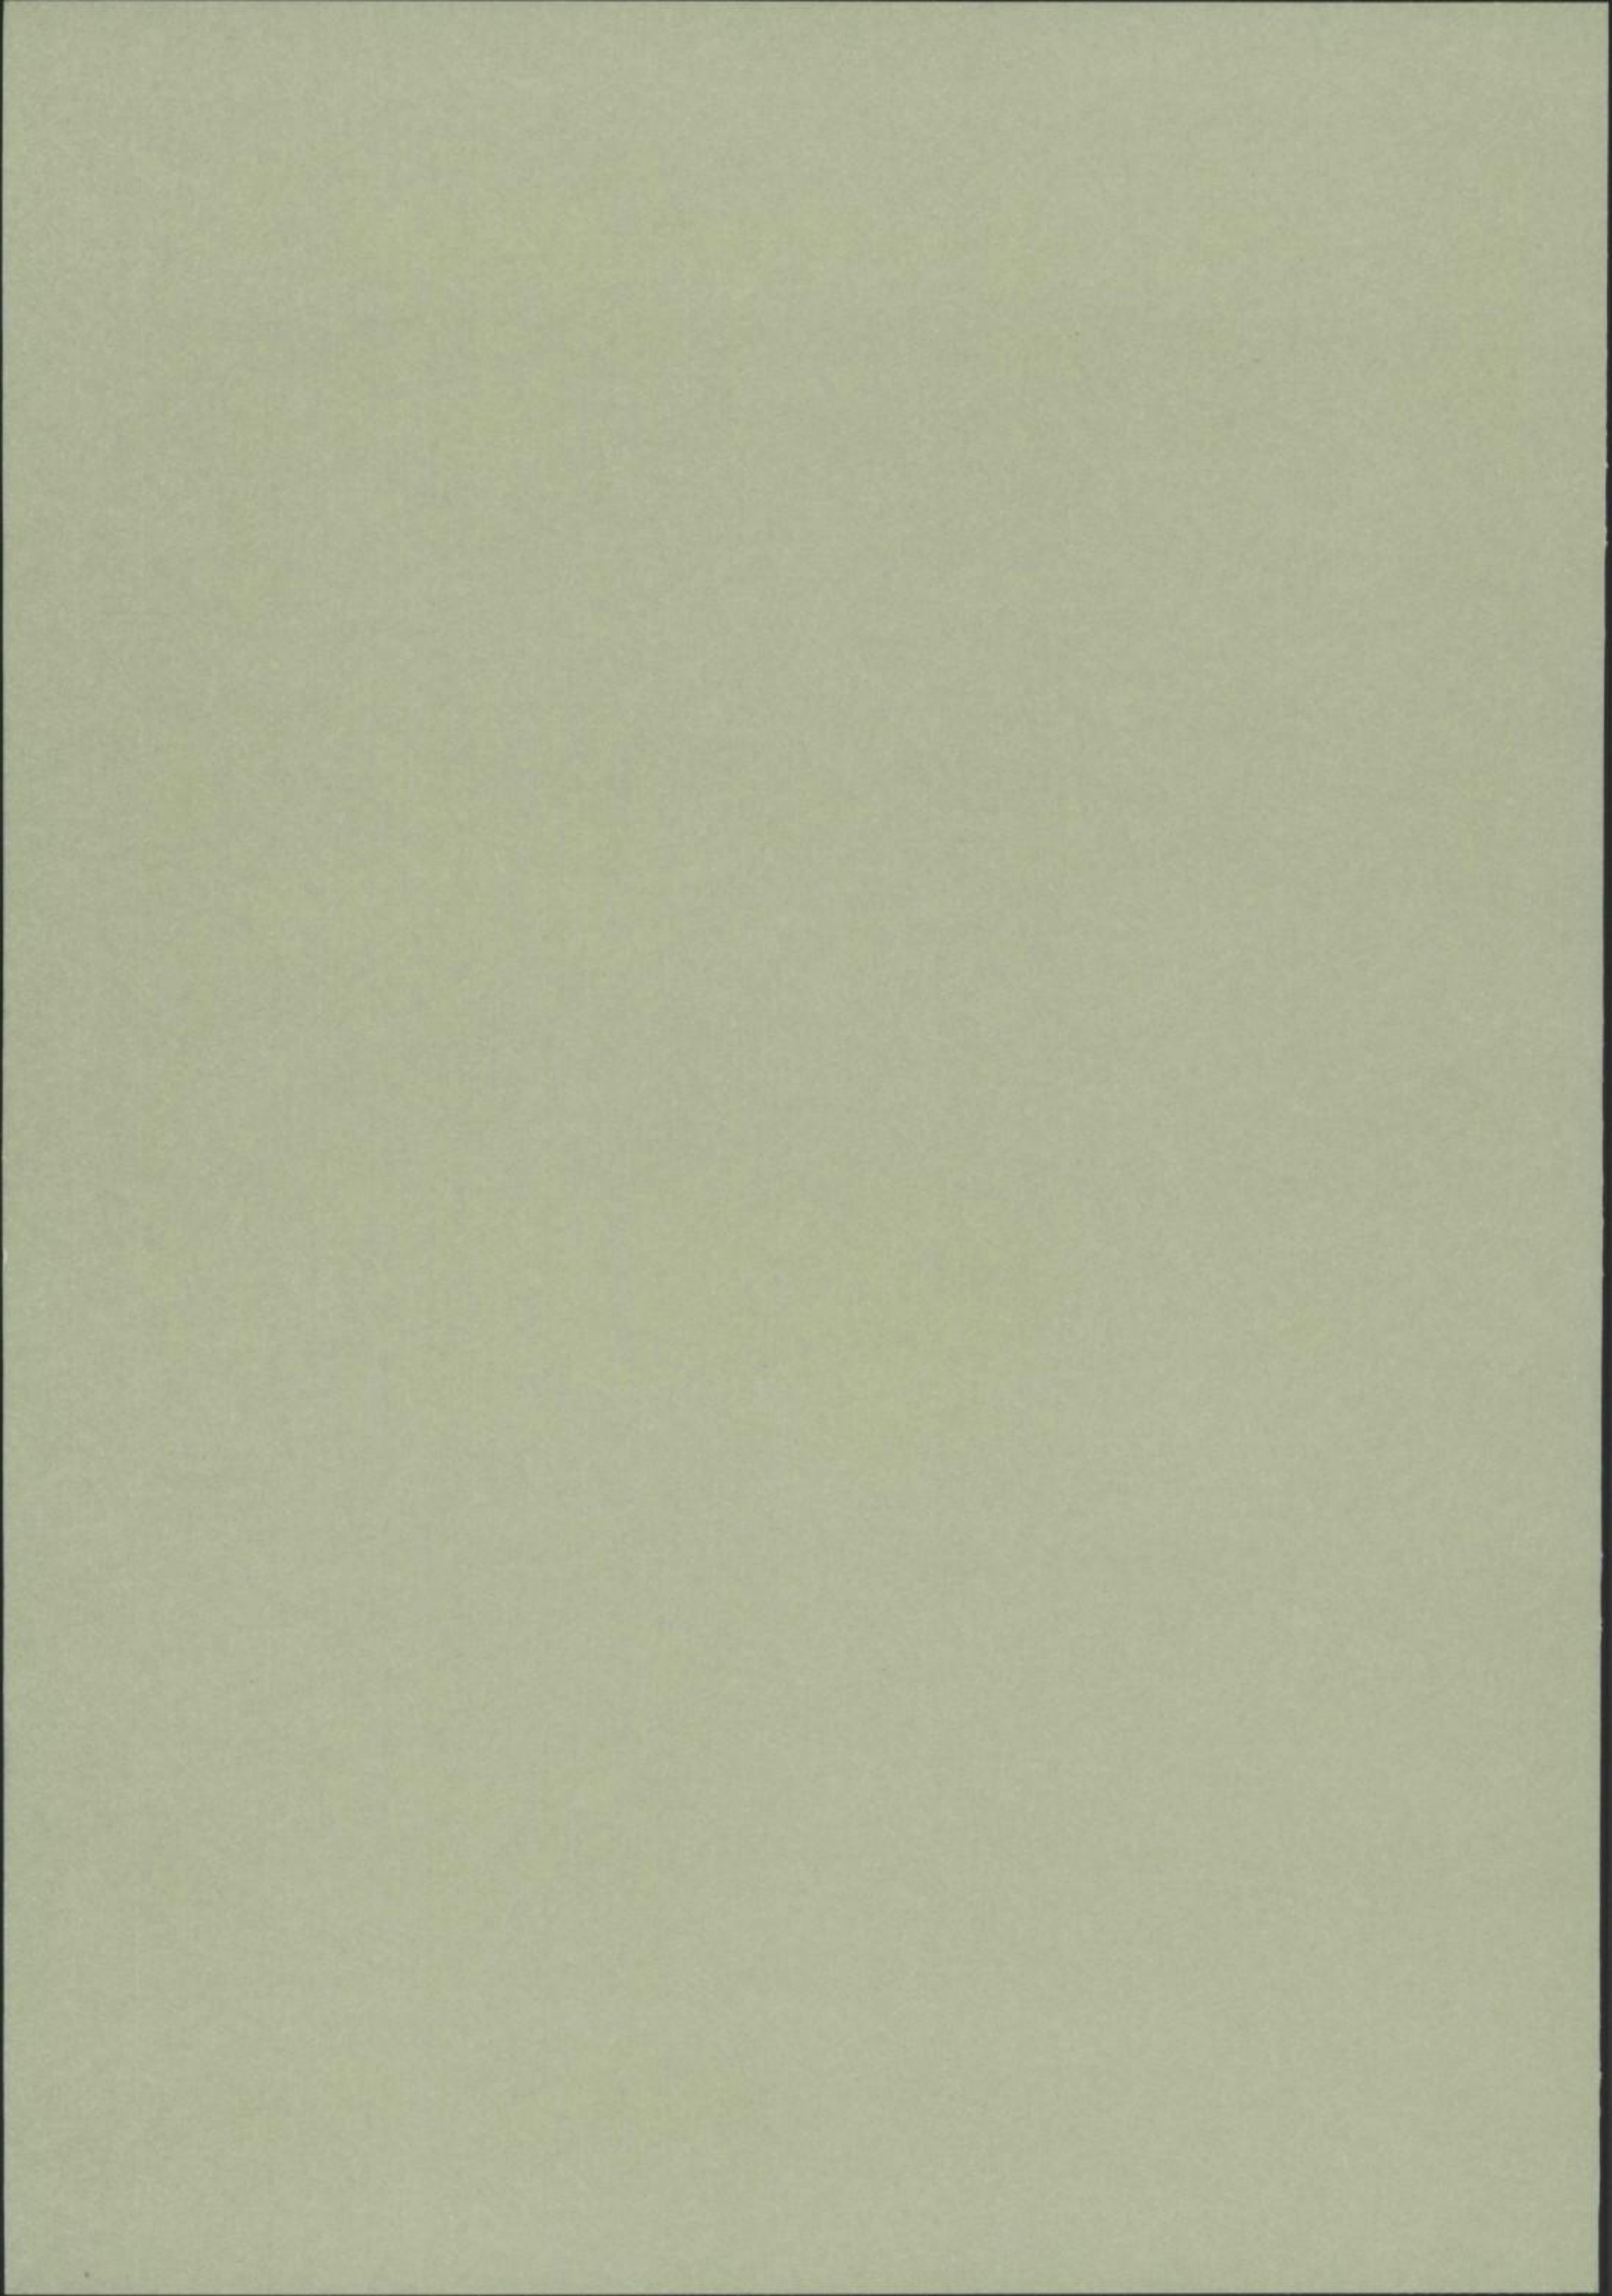

Mr. William Rorion
Miss Marlene Berkowitz
The yearbook staff
Mr. Kevin Byrne, the Josten's People
Mr. Mark Maserjian and Arax Strouss and of course our advertisers

Putting together a yearbook takes many hours of hard work, planning, patience, and frustration. Without the help of these people, this book would not have been possible.

Thank you all again!
